

INVITED SPEAKER

George Ubachs is Managing Director of EADTU. He is responsible for the development and support of policies and execution of its goals in distance learning. He manages several educational co-operation networks and the E-xcellence, EPICS for Virtual Erasmus and the USBM project. He coordinated several European education related projects and was coordinator of the European Network of E2C-Europe (Cities for Second Chance Schools). George Ubachs graduated at the State University of Leiden and Erasmus University Rotterdam on Public Administration with specialisation in European Integration.